Appellant

Mr S.R.Apte i/by Shri P.R.Arjunwadkar, for the applicant.
Ms Neeta P.Karnik, for the respondent.

CORAM : S.B.MHASE &
D.B.BHOSALE, JJ.

DATE : MARCH 15, 2005.

P.C.

1. Heard both sides.

2. We do not find any reason to interfere and modify the order dated 13.9.2004. The prayer to that effect is rejected.

3. Mr. Apte, learned counsel for the applicant, submitted that the matter may be expedited and listed for final hearing and showed his willingness to submit paper book. In view of this, we expedite the appeal. Mr Apte is at liberty to file paper book. On submission of such paper book, Office is directed to scrutinise the said paper book and find out whether it is according to the Appellate Side Rules.

On satisfaction of the office, liberty to Mr Apte to mention the matter for a fixed date of hearing. The civil application is disposed of.
